DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the first rotation inhibitor being replaceable must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

Art Unit: 3714

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 3 recites the limitation "the engager" in line 1. There is improper antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1, 2, 4, 5, 8-13, and 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Van Teunenbroek et al.

Teunenbroek et al. disclose a deformable toy article (see attached sheet); the toy article may be made of deformable material such as polyvinyl chloride or polyolefin (col. 4, lines 1-2); the toy article is deformable upon application of torque (see Figure 2 and col. 3, lines 1-9); the rotation inhibitor is replaceable (col. 3, lines 36-39); the first engager is capable of continued rotation (as a result of deforming or breaking the rotation inhibitor as indicated at '10 in Figure 2).

Claims 1-5, 8-13, and 16-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Oprisko.

Oprisko discloses a deformable toy article (see attached sheet) in which force is applied to the game piece by turning, twisting, pulling or otherwise exerting a force on an engaged game piece relative to the opposing engage game piece (§ 0036, lines 9-13 and § 0064, lines 9-13). The rotation inhibitor may be replaced by substituting a similar game piece (§ 0066 in entirety).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 6, 7, 14, and 15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
